Ideology

What is Ideology

Ideology comes from the word Idea which means idea, concepts, and future goals. Logos means knowledge. The word Eidos means shape, so in terms of literal meaning, ideology means basic knowledge.

Ideology

An ideology also have different meanings, this is caused by its basic philosophy that is embraced because ideology must have several elements, namely:

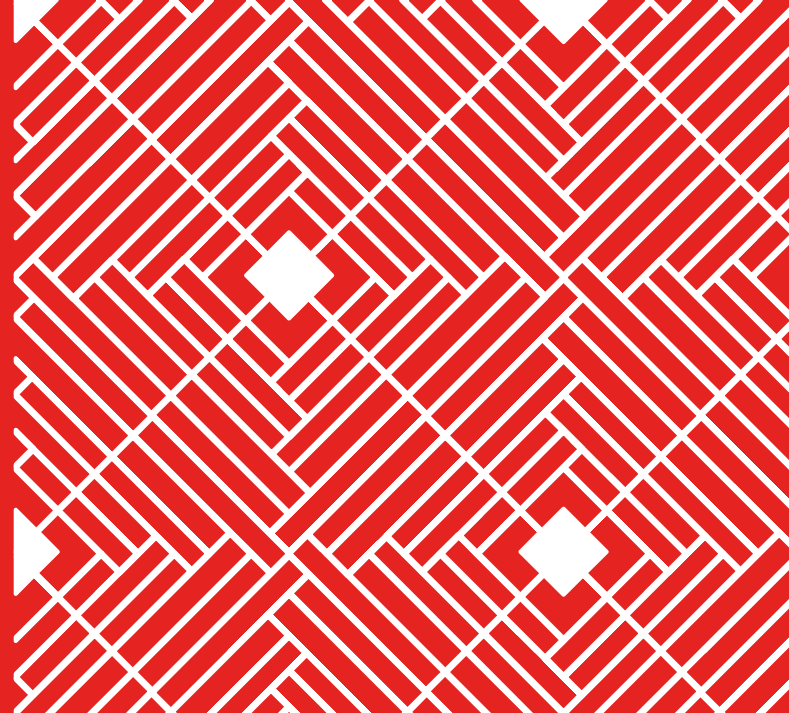

- A view of the basic ideas of a value system that is systematic and firm and often believed even though it has not been proven empirically.

- The existence of a group of people as supporters or adherents of an ideology

- The existence of a group of people who support the realisation of basic ideas or values summarised by the ideology so that a goal or ideal is achieved.

The Importance of Ideology

The Nature of Ideology

The Nature of Ideology can be measured by looking at the nature of ideological supporters of their ideology. Then, it will cause two characteristics, namely:

1. Open Ideology
2. Closed Ideology

The Nature of Ideology

There are some ways to express an Ideology, namely:

1. Symbols, the main symbol of an ideology is language
2. Myth, an important part, even though the beliefs that are planted in order to believe in the truth of existing ideologies and the existence of mythical things are only imaginary.
3. Linked to the foundation of science and knowledge, so that the ideology is more accepted and embedded in its supporters.

Pancasila as a National Ideology

Pancasila as a National Ideology

Pancasila Ideology is an ideology based on Pancasila values, be it the value of divinity, humanity, unity, democracy, and justice. Pancasila ideology is an open ideology, meaning that Pancasila ideology can follow the developments that occur in other countries that have different ideologies with Pancasila.

This is because Pancasila Ideology has values that include:

1. Core value
2. Instrumental value
3. Practical value

Dimensions in Pancasila

Idealistic Dimension

The basic values contained in Pancasila are systematic and rational, namely the nature of the values contained in the five principles of Pancasila

Realistic Dimension

An ideology must be able to reflect the realities that live and develop in society

Socialism

The ideology has a flexibility that allows and can stimulate the development of new thoughts that are relevant to itself

Pancasila as Indonesia Ideology

Pancasila as an open ideology, containing that Pancasila can be developed in accordance with the dynamics of the life of the Indonesian people and the demands of the times creatively

Pancasila ideology requires that the Indonesian people survive in the soul and culture of the Indonesian people in the container and bonds of the Republic of Indonesia

As an open ideology, Pancasila must be able to provide forward orientation, requiring the Indonesian people to realise the situation of life that is being and will be faced

Pancasila ideology should be able to adjust to the situation and conditions of the times that continue to change

Factors that encourage the thought of Pancasila as an open ideology

01

In the process of planned national development, the dynamics of our society are developing very quickly

02

The reality of the bankruptcy of closed ideologies such as marxism leninism / communism

03

The experience of our own political history with the influence of communism is very important

04

Our determination to make Pancasila the only principle in the life of society, nation and state.
